Position Announcement

Assistant Clinical Professor of Social Work – Non-Tenure Track

The Center for Social Work Education invites applications for three non-tenure track positions at the rank of Assistant Clinical Professor. These faculty positions carry a 4/4 teaching load as well as university and community service responsibilities. Teaching assignments may be a combination of BSW, MSW and MSW On-Line courses.

We are looking for faculty who can teach in at least two of the following curriculum areas: foundation practice, advanced clinical practice, HBSE, diagnosis and assessment, social work practice with groups, social work practice with families, and specialized clinical practice electives. Clinical faculty carry the same status as tenured/tenure track faculty in the Center for Social Work Education. The primary difference is that clinical faculty carry a higher teaching load and reduced expectations regarding scholarship and publication. Clinical faculty who have an active research agenda are given the same 3/3 teaching load as tenured/tenure track faculty. All faculty tenured/tenure track and clinical at Widener University have renewable annual contracts.

Required Qualifications: To be considered for this position the candidate must have (1) A CSWE accredited MSW degree, (2) an LSW or LCSW license, and (3) at least five-years of direct social work practice employment.

Preferred Qualifications: In addition to the above requirements, preference will be given to candidates who have (1) a Ph.D. or D.S.W. in clinical social work, (2) prior social work teaching experience, (3) knowledge of and experience with distance education, (4) an interest in civic engagement, and (5) background and expertise in trauma.

Salary: Salary is competitive with a generous benefit package

Appointment: The position is a ten-month faculty appointment as an Assistant Clinical Professor of Social Work.

Start Date: August 2015

About Us: Widener University, an independent, metropolitan, doctoral-intensive university, connects curricula to social issues through civic engagement. Dynamic teaching, active scholarship, personal attention and experiential learning are key components of the Widener Experience. Located in Chester, Pennsylvania, Widener's main campus is nestled between Philadelphia, PA and Wilmington, DE, with satellite campuses in Exton and Harrisburg, PA and Wilmington, DE. For more information about the University, please visit our website at www.widener.edu.

The Center for Social Work Education is a dynamic and vibrant community with a variety of educational programs and initiatives. The Center has a diverse student body and faculty who share a strong commitment to social justice, community service and the University's civic engagement mission. We currently have 21 full-time social work faculty members and anticipate adding several more in the next two years.

We have a growing BSW program with approximately 60 social work majors. The BSW program prepares students for generalist social work practice and/or graduate school. The MSW program has a single concentration in clinical social work with a trauma-informed curriculum. We currently have approximately 350 full and part-time students in our campus-based MSW program and about 150 students in our newly launched on-line MSW program option. We anticipate that on-line MSW program will have an enrollment of 400 plus students by 2017. The MSW program also offers a dual degree option with human sexuality. The BSW and MSW programs are fully accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. The PhD program prepares candidates for academic and research careers. We currently have approximately 35 PhD students and admit a cohort of five students a year.

Widener Social Work also runs a community based clinic called Social Work Counseling Services (SWCS) that provides pro bono social work and capacity building services to community based organizations and community residents. SWCS is staffed primarily by social work interns and serves as a state-of-the-art internship site for BSW and MSW students. Our Clinical Services for Vulnerable Adults program at SWCS provides treatment services to vulnerable adult community residents, their families and caregivers. SWCS interns and faculty also provide capacity building and social work services in collaboration with grassroots community organizations that serve community residents but do not have MSW social workers on staff.
